

Trooping The Colours

24 September 2016

In celebration of the 150th Anniversary of the Lorne Scots (Peel, Dufferin and Halton Regiment) cadets from 2990, along with other Lorne Scots Cadet Corps members, took part in the ceremonial "Trooping the Colours" parade in the presence of HRH Field Marshall Prince Edward, the Duke of Kent. Other dignitaries present included the Commander of the 32nd Canadian Brigade Group, CO 5 BN, Royal Regiment of Fusiliers and the Mayor of Brampton. HRH inspected and spoke with members of the Regiment, Cadets and the "old Guard".

HRH The Duke of Kent, who is the Colonel in Chief of the Regiment, also unveiled a memorial to the Lorne Scots in Oakville ON.

Representing 2990 were RSM S. Daradjat, DSM S. Kapar and WO's E. Carpio, G. DeStasio and B. Jago.
